The doctor and his wife refused to say where they were going. "I've been in jail for about five months," he said. "I need a few days off to unwind. I'll be going to the country club, I'll play some golf and enjoy the Florida sunshine. 'Although the doctor appeared pale and exhausted, he and his wife laughed and beamed at the crowd that awaited his arrival at the airport. Colonel Farber, a next-door neighbor of Dr. Coppolino and his first wife when they lived 'in Middletown, N.J., died on July 30, 1963. The first Mrs. Coppolino died here on Aug. 28, 1965. As for the indictment here, Dr. Coppolino said in New York, "I would rather go on trial this afternoon." He said he was confident during his first trial that he would be acquitted and he expected the same verdict here. Mrs. Farber, who lives near the Coppolinos here, is expected to testify against the doctor in next trial, too. F. Lee Bailey, the doctor's defense lawyer in the Farber death, also is expected to defend the Dr. Coppolino here. Mr. Bailey left Freehold this morning to attend a law seminar at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. Before leaving Freehold, Mr. Bailey said he would file a 1-million damage suit against Mrs. Farber for "malicious prosecution," according to United Press International. The board of inquiry, appointed by State Industrial Commissioner Martin P. Catherwood and headed by Theodore W. Kheel, a lawyer and mediator, issued recommendations Dec. 7--that were rejected by the union's leadership. Vincent D. McDonnell, chair--man of the State Mediation Board, yesterday urged all the plumbers to vote "because of the disastrous nature of the strike." The dispute has affected more than Q500-million worth of public and private construction hire and prevented more than 2,500 families from moving into new apartments.
